BISMILLAH! RAHMANI RAHIM

Assalamu'alaikum!

Jazakallah khair for your interest to learn more about Productive Ramadan.

HOW IT ALL STARTED

It's funny how we at Productive Muslim first started Productive Ramadan. To be honest, I didn't quite plan for it.

When ProductiveMuslim.com got a little bit popular, I wanted to provide our readers with something beneficial for Ramadan.

I found that while many are inspired to take action for Ramadan, they also struggle with challenges like:

- ☹️ It's so hard to keep up reading one juz a day of the Qur'an when I'm so sleepy and tired.
- ☹️ I keep losing focus during salah, especially during taraweeh.
- ☹️ There's so much to do with the kids and the cooking, I don't have time for extra ibadah.
- ☹️ I can't focus on my studies and exams when I'm running on so little sleep and energy.
- ☹️ It's difficult to keep up with work demands, and after work I'm even more drained to find the energy for taraweeh.

PRODUCTIVE RAMADAN

Online Course

That was when I saw a huge gap in the Islamic self-help field.

Alhamdulillah, there is an abundance of information you can find from esteemed scholars, books, lectures and Friday sermons delving into the verses of the Quran and the sayings of the Prophet (ﷺ). But very few of them, relate how to practically apply these verses/hadeeth to our daily modern lives.

Information available on Ramadan was much the same. You can find lots of quality education material on the meaning of Ramadan, its virtues and blessings, its history and traditions, the do's and don't's, and so on.

And yes – these are all crucially important to build upon our understanding and iman during Ramadan.

But there are very few resources guiding you with practical tips and solutions that help you take effective action to express and live this iman in your daily life!

Many Muslims are looking for practical solutions to help them overcome their Ramadan challenges and achieve their Ramadan goals. And that was how we decided to create Productive Ramadan.

PUTTING TOGETHER PRACTICAL SOLUTIONS TO TACKLE RAMADAN CHALLENGES

The first year was crazy.

My team at Productive Muslim and I had to figure out everything from how to create a learning experience, to recording the course, to how to upload, creating a student membership site and so on.

Drawing upon our intent to serve the Ummah, we pulled it off with surprising results. Over 100 students signed up with us! Alhamdulillah!

I was excited, yet nervous. Doubt swarmed my mind: “Will my course work? Will it help people become productive during Ramadan?”

My worries subsided when students gave feedback on how much they were learning. I couldn't believe it at first and thought they were being polite with me. But then I started hearing specific cases of how my online course was truly helping them, Alhamdulillah.

We have since had many successful years of running the Productive Ramadan online course. With student feedback, we have continually improved the content.

I invite you to read on till the end and learn more about how Productive Ramadan Online Course can also help you achieve your most productive Ramadan yet, In sha Allah.

Sincerely,

Mohammed Faris (aka Abu Productive)

How will Productive Ramadan Online Course help me?

The key lies in early preparation of your mental, physical, social and spiritual skillsets

We found that many Muslims struggle during Ramadan because they do not have the awareness or productivity skills to keep up with the added responsibilities of Ramadan.

Because of this, they keep falling into “3 Common Unproductivity Traps”.

3 Common Unproductivity Traps

The key lies in early preparation of your mental, physical, social and spiritual skillsets

Trap #1: "The Energy Drain"

You're running on less sleep and energy, and you have to do more?!

Productive Ramadan Online Course will teach you practical steps of proper sleep management, energy management, and nutrition management before Ramadan begins.

This way, by the time Ramadan starts, you are optimally prepared to meet your daily responsibilities in your studies, at home, at work and in your community, plus maximise extra acts of ibadah and good deeds, In sha Allah.

Trap #2: "The Social Ritual"

So much to eat; so many people to meet!
If your iftars feel a lot like this, then...

Productive Ramadan Online Course will teach you how to train your mind for productivity and set transformational goals to master your inner thoughts. By mastering your mind, you can change your habits – from overeating habits to our habits of mindless social interaction – and transform them into actions that purify you from a place of spiritual focus and intention so that you may improve in mind, body and soul.

The key lies in early preparation of your mental, physical, social and spiritual skillsets

Trap #3: "The Distracted Mind"

Just 5 more minutes on Facebook. What's on television? The kids need this. Did I turn off the stove? Oh, Eid preparations! Must finish that report to send to the boss...

Productive Ramadan Online Course provides the tools for proper sleep management, energy management, nutrition management and productive thinking so that internally, you are at your physical and mental best to perform extra deeds of worship for the sake of Allah SWT.

You'll also get practical tips to be productive at studies, at home and at work — so that when you perform ibadah, your mind is not distracted by a pending to-do list and daily stress.

Finally, Productive Ramadan Online Course will delve into an inside-out understanding of the link between spirituality and productivity, the concepts that boost spiritual energy, and how to apply the key acts of worship to boost spiritual energy — which ultimately fuels back into strengthening your physical and mental energy!

Common Concern #7:

How do I know this is for me?

At Productive Muslim Academy, it is one of our core values and service to Allah SWT to be honest with you.

THAT'S WHY WE WILL OPENLY SAY THAT PRODUCTIVE RAMADAN COURSE IS NOT FOR EVERYONE.

☹️ If you are looking to increase your knowledge on Ramadan, the virtues and fiqh of Ramadan, the rules of fasting, how to pray, and other such information on the concepts and understanding of our deen, then Productive Ramadan is not the course for you.

We instead encourage you to look elsewhere at the many different quality resources and learning centres available online to pursue and increase your knowledge on these matters, and may it bring benefit to you, In sha Allah.

☹️ This course is also not for you if you have no intention to maximise the barakah of Ramadan, and are quite happy to simply “survive” Ramadan and wait for Eid.

HOWEVER, IF YOU ARE:

- ✔️ Frustrated with the feeling of how you've “wasted” your previous Ramadans
- ✔️ Looking for practical tips to apply Islamic knowledge into every aspect of your daily life
- ✔️ In need of solutions to overcome your Ramadan challenges
- ✔️ Have the sincere intent to achieve your Ramadan goals and maximise the barakah of Ramadan for the sake of Allah SWT
- ✔️ Willing to invest less than an hour a day for two weeks to adequately prepare for Ramadan

Then, Productive Ramadan Online Course is right for you and will bring much benefit to you, In sha Allah. As Allah SWT says:

*“And that there is not for man except that [good] for which he strives”
[Qur'an: Chapter 53, Verse 39]*

If you are still unsure, we encourage you to seek guidance from Allah SWT and pray salaatul istikhara until you know with certainty if it is the right time to invest in this course.

Make this Ramadan Your Most Productive Ramadan Yet!

It's time to make Ramadan your launchpad to a more productive life ahead.

One of the many beautiful benefits of Ramadan is that it becomes your “training ground” to push your growth and transform you, making you stronger for the coming year forward – mentally, physically, socially and spiritually.

Give yourself the chance to see if Productive Ramadan Online Course can help you be more productive in making the most out of Ramadan to become the best you can be for the sake of Allah SWT.

You don't even have to decide now. With our 30-day money back guarantee, you can try it out risk-free.
